About This Game

As a Son of Nor, consecrated by the Goddess of the Night, you are all that stands between the human race and total extinction. Only one human enclave remains in the vast desert world of Noshrac, a hidden refuge called The Edge. After 400 years of peace, humanity's ancient enemy the Sarahul appears once more, forcing you into an adventure to save your people.

Armed with telekinesis and terraforming, the gifts granted by the goddess Nor, you will explore the world of Noshrac, fighting through enemy territory and uncovering long-forgotten secrets. On your journey you will discover mysterious structures created by an ancient race that are filled with puzzles and traps – and the key to mystical powers unlike any you've ever seen.

As a Son of Nor, the World is your Weapon. Use it wisely.

Soon they enslaved the entire human race.

Not even worth $0.99, nor was it worth the 5 minutes it took to download, i would rather get sued by epic games for cheating in fortnite and then proceed to lose the case in court than play another second of this almost-excuse of a game, if you could even call it that. I have a GTX 1080 TI, an I7-8700k, 32GB of ram, and i consistantly get frame rates so slow, I could produce them faster with a Model 95 Polaroid Instant camera, But the Image quality of that camera actually happens to be better than the image quality in this game. This should've never made it past Steam Greenlight and I encourage this game's developers to completely remove any evidence that it ever existed at all because it's solid proof that they've commited a serious offense to some degree.. Interesting storyline and game mechanics.... but overall so so...... I would give it 70 out of 100,,,,,, maybe if it had a bit more customization..... it feels like a cheap version of Jedi Knight,
